

NATIONAL STALKING AWARENESS WEEK

25TH-29TH APRIL 2022

977,000 women
and 526,000 men were victims of stalking in 2019/20

Crime Survey for England and Wales (2020)

National Stalking Awareness Week 2022 is taking place from the 25th to the 29th of April. The theme this year is 'Bridging the Gap', highlighting the role that advocates play in supporting victims of stalking. It is organised by the Suzy Lamplugh Trust, and supported by the Alice Ruggles Trust.

You can get involved on social media by sharing resources and raising awareness of stalking.

@live_life_safe

@alicerugglestrust

@ACR_Trust

In 94% of femicide cases, the killer displayed the obsessive, fixated behaviours associated with stalking.

Suzy Lamplugh Trust (2017)

#BRIDGINGTHEGAP #NSAW2022